

Letter to Horace Waller, 28 November 1863

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Murcluson's Cataracts

28 Nov^r 1863

My dear Waller

The bishop gives a different idea of affair of the women children. He wishes avoid mixing the on the station & our Magomero with both and Heathen think the precaution very wise one. I shall take measures have them supplied M^r Ferra's till [0002] can raise a crop take them to Johanna have but little wish to them Mahometans my late experience these Johanna men me a very low idea their morals. If the were not taken up would willingly have to the expense of all to the Cape the hope that good bishop Gray would make of the boys. I dont wish to as if acting in to the bishop his mission. It is a

[0003] that you separated from them you might have been great service by your and they have been useful you in various ways came home here on

31st (Oct^r) pretty tired marching as the flies 660 gepgraphical [s][...] [or] about 1400 [...] [your] friend Steward's miles - We waiting anxiously the rising of the - all very well to a Higher Power are all ready -

[0004]

I have little time to write; as hope to see you soon it as if a work of - We send a few Shupanga as our native runs low. Your from the hills came with reinforcements with the Mission & [...] Makololo Mank[...] on to island & bo[...] his - two on each side so saith vox - with every good I am &c

David Livingstone

a Johanna man yesterday a crockodile