

Letter to William C. Oswell

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

50, ALBEMARLE ( S<sup>T</sup>)

W.

7 August 1865

My Dear Oswell

I send you a proof of what I mean as a sort of answer to Lacenda
It is to be a postscript to the Preface
& M<sup>r</sup> Murray thinks I have put
it pretty well
return it with

[0002]

corrections as soon as you can. I enclose the King
of Portugal's speech
and mean to add
a sentence to the effect that I have seen it &
my opinion
remains unaltered. I have this moment
arrived from

[0003]

Newstead - (Monday noon) with M<sup>r</sup> & M<sup>rs</sup> Webb. They come for advice

My kind love to M<sup>rs</sup> Oswell & her chicks. I

send this to Forest House
in case you are still there. Agnes & I propose to start this day

[0004]
week for Paris 13th I to be at Marseilles on 20th

Ever Affectionately
Yours

David Livingstone

protected with the view of preventing