1840

My Dear Sir

I refrained writing you respecting the books to be presented to D<sup>r</sup> Bennett untill I could inform you of the result of the examination I underwent this morning

After about an hour's examination I was elected member of the "Faculty of Physicians & Surgeons, Glasgow" so the chief object of my journey to Scotland has been successfully accomplished

I intend going to Hamilton this evening to pay a short visit to my parents & afterwards will leave Glasgow so as to be in London on Thursday night or early on Friday morning

D<sup>r</sup> Bennett said he should like [0002]
to have either " Ellis' Madagascar" or the new work which comes out ~~next~~ [this] week Most of the others he has read--

Perhaps both of the above mentioned works might be given him, as he well deserves them.

M<sup>rs</sup>. Taylor & Inglis are both well & pursuing their studies vigourously. They desire me to present you their very kind regards

Yours Affectionately

David Livingston
