

Letter to H. Norton Shaw, [2 February 1857]

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

57 Sloane St

Monday Morning

My Dear D^r Shaw

I enclose the with a perfect of corrections never read the in the public but hope were more than "our reporters"

[0002] some points he not caught the which whether ever came out not was in own mind, a share a very large of the blame after all my . Sir Roderick my to General

[0003] . I forget the words. you mind something the last sentence mean if it is to do so

You see in the Times morning the is put on shoulders and friend Prout no doubt ready

[0004] swear that corrected myself is true. having merely glanced the newspaper & pointed out it was all wrong the Zambesi this "Save from some my friends"

D. Livingston

I believe I have drawn pen through the words be left out.