

Letter to Charles S. de Neufville Lucas, 30 October 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Cambala Hill
30 (Oct^r) 1865

My Dear Sir

On recieving note I wrote (Col) Taylor & spoke to the about the disobliging . The thought would come smooth

[0002] was not at all and me to find out other means influencing Mahomet. I found out he is a great whom Sultan cannot on well without I have to submit somewhat

[0003] the same way the Sultan to do, and I that the & men arrive in spite him. I formerly a Captain had this on board England & only way of him was to deny [0004] any more aboard!

Thanking you the trouble kindly took

I am sincerely yours

David Livingstone

Captain Lucas

[0005]

notes in different hand

David Livingstone

Born 1817 - died

African traveller and missionary

In 1856. D^r Livingstone had during 16 years wandering travelled no than 11,000 miles, whilst to spread the blessing Christianity thru lands never before by the foot of an European. subsequently laid down his life his noble endeavour to check the trade.