Hamilton 2^d June 1865.

Dear D^r Tidman

D^r J. C. Meller was surgeon the Pioneer while vessel was my charge, going out to Madagascar on 8th current, Consul in Island.

[0002] has been there a short time saw M^r Ellis the capital. always behaved a very kind to the Mission-under bishop , and think would be to treat missionaries Madagascar the same way.

[0003]

If you would like call upon him address is 48 Queen Anne St.
Cavendish Square

and it might dispose to regard your there with in case their requiring medical or services. he has some respect for as his old , I have ventured

[0004] recommend him take the same kind into Mada-, as he did the Shiremission-, and I said I would mention going out to

Ever yours
David Livingstone
