Monday Morning

My Dear M^r Murray

I send XXXIII - XXXV -
at present -
and some slips [& more] as soon as my brother
has read them.

I am just at them
incorporating the corrections. I think I make all plain which

[0002]

as I am speaking
of things not generally known
it will be found difficult for another to do .

I am sorry to say I cannot come on the 26th
as Sir Roderick
engaged me for

[0003]

that day a fortnight ago. It is the anniversary of
the R.G.S.
I send your acceptance of
Sir C. Eastlake's
invitation .

M^r Binney is still ill. I shall

get him to read over though not correct verbally

[0004]
before publication .
he Directors of the Society profess
to be well pleased
with my speech.
he woodcut is good I think.

I send the woodcuts
too. I think I am not invited to the Fund dinner as I declined believing I should be absent
in Scotland .
