

Letter to William Sunley, 13 September 1864

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Hamilton 13th (Sept^r)
1864

My dear Sunley

I got your letter night and am like sorry that had no opportunity conversing together the future, but was not sure that I not meet you home in England. ought to have what things required and I have written M^rSoares to send them if I needed them

[0002] they could be returned

I am glad the cart suits . I am going out in a few months to the North of . I am sorry you did not advise Fraezer to try his plantation on the . as he will all the difficulties contend against in the owners over again have always hampered . Have you still intention of trying you can do in a sphere on the ? I have kept steamer to see if I get a good spurt [0003] some of the rivers & write if I do not you.

I am going to the of the British at Bath am bothered what say as public speaking totally against the in my com-. I wish you Seedy would do it me. Rae's friends been enquiring him. I write this simply to let know that I have from you and write again when have time

[0004]

and am ever yours
David Livingstone
(Sepr) 13^h 1864
(Rec^d) (Feb) 11/65
Ans

I think the consular is on its home. & I may it. I hear you retired. Is that true? was by way India I came home (Comp^{ts}) to Rae.