My Dear M^r Murray

I hear the are to taken down Stafford today. If you think else

[0002] needed M^r Wolf to go before are removed

My brother will in London evening will I daresay me on a quicker I he left my advice £30 came [0003] hand. but it is . M^r Binney made a good corrections shall embody & his . He advised few sentences the change in feelings in my without many religious would set book down

[0004] a merely intellectual and that was not a religious at all. do so in 4 or 5 & then that I will not to the religious again not the evangelistic to which impelled me will take away handle which might use

[0005] it. M^r Binney pleased with it has also smoothed harsh sentences might given offence the sensitive

M^r MacLehose of [Glasgow] tells me he has 200 copies if it does not well a heavy will be at door!

[0006] only wish it were a state for at all
