

Letter to Horace Waller, 6 February 1866 Letter to Horace Waller, 6 February 1866

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org) [0001]

Zanzibar 6 Februy

1866

My Dear Waller

I am to be here until the Penguin comes to take me to Rovuma
Bay. Nine of my buffaloes died. It seems to be a plant that kills so I have only six left to experiment upon.
but I may get more
or camels as I am
intent of getting inde pendent of carriers
from one chief to another & if I succeed
it wont be lost time
[0002]

I need scarcely say that though I should be able to move along in dependence on my own party alone I shall try and avoid all sort of brow beating. The poor Baron van der Deken
made a great mistake
in never losing an opportunity of shewing
the contempt in which he held the natives - He never believed that any one of them would dare to touch a Baron bold. Thrust away
the hand of the chief in [0003]
disdain when he offered

it in token of friendship that mans people killed him. That nasty negrophobia spirit
which is spreading in England wont do to travel with. Though it may do for spouting
with at the R.G.S.
The poor baron quarelled with every one here -
refused as D^r Steere told me to come to church because Tozer prays for the Sultan. Wasnt
he a Knight Templar & bound to extirpate all Turks & infidels!

[0004]

The Mission is to all intents a chaplaincy &
they seem to do that work well. They have about 25 boys & girls. D^r Steere has printed a sort of handbook of Suaheli & I have no doubt will
in time do good for
no where can christians live as Christians ought but they must have a beneficial influence
This is all I can give you. The boys behave well. Anna
takes after Rowley
talkative & useless
I am &c David Livingstone