Dear Sir George

I am ashamed my manners my return England, I never nor thanked for your gift, though you will only

[0002] me I shall you how it is have appeared so . The part of my in England so taken up the book - second with speechifying the third preparation

[0003] leaving that must have seemed those who do not allowances decidedly wanting common But can honestly say I deeply feel sympathy you manifested my work I thank you

[0004] heartily for friendship which and Lady Back shewn. If I return you find me more natural man I have been time. If not we through meet each in Heaven

I am gratefully
