My Dear Waller

We met the Ariel Oldfield on 24th took in provisions next day foul made us run and him run out. 26 at 5 (P.M.) we out over a tremendous got a boat from - delivered our letters ran in again - The is going home will be out in 15 months - He is promoted

[0002] ran around three in coming down saw a prospect very low water in Zambesi Shire a month six weeks hence - got no Johanna & Ariel was going the Cape so we must to Johanna for a and it is likely we may spend months between & Nov^r or Dec^r boat exploration

[0003] the Rovuma - This be better work slowly threading our up to you -

I told Vianna about cheating perpetrated Blair and only uttered a few 's blessings on "these cursed negroes" have a £5 cask of wine board for you - Scudi. not like it you must pitch him - 2 bales of cloth are bespoke - & ready for you -

We are getting ready sea - I send you

[0004] up to Thornton tell him to get

Vianna to send it on your expense - I do because Vianna be gone as he to Quillimane. in Thornton's hands will be safe -

The bishop is gone to England for another head you and there he be successful - are not to get a but I need tell you what will doubt be better told your letters

[0005] for your ultimate there can be doubt of it. You meet with trials and from without from within - but is God's own and he will its triumph.

From a hint I see a Cape paper M^r had written to M^r Noble the editor the Advertizer about abstrudions he

[0006] imagined had been in his way at

Natal - and M^r Hawkins called on the Editor consequence and that nothing been done by him. am very sorry that sort of unfriendly feeling appear in public am conscious of but feeling of respect love for both and am sure there is room and to spare all who may [0007] to promote Christs in this region. I might venture suggest the more course to you. shew yourselves as to any petty by acting as you knew it not. time asperities will off - You must my impertinence this presumptuous .

Captain Oldfield is to hear you have not by time houses

[0008] good as Sunley's explained the difficulties he does not realize - We hope to the Gorgon at

Johanna - We have box I think of medicines you - and I shall up your cloth & grog in January possible - In the mean . My Dear Friend up your heart Him who is with you & always be -
