1840

My Dear Sir

I refrained writing you the books to be presented to D^r Bennett I could inform you of the result of examination I underwent this morning

After about an hour's examination was elected member of the "Faculty of & Surgeons, Glasgow" so the object of my journey to Scotland been successfully accomplished

I intend going to Hamilton this to pay a short visit to parents & afterwards will leave Glasgow so as to be in London on night or early on Friday morning

D^r Bennett said he should like

[0002] have either "Ellis' Madagascar" or the work which comes out ~~next~~[this] week of the others he has read—

Perhaps both of the above mentioned might be given him, as he deserves them.

(M^{rs}.) Taylor & Inglis are both well

& pursuing their studies vigourously. They me to present you their very regards

Yours Affectionately

David Livingston
