Hamilton,

14th Sept 1857

My Dear Sir

It certainly would be very nice to spend a short time in the pleasant
haunts to which you most kindly invite me, but

[0002]

I think that duty compels me to decline the enjoy ment. I am at present lionizing -
a work to which I have no appetite,
but different
friends seem
anxious for it and I think it may lead to the opening of Africa

[0003]

to the gospel and
submit accordingly .
If M<sup>r</sup> Cecil is with you, pray
present my
kindest regards .
I have not had time to call on him since my return and indeed

I have gone no
where on pleasure .
I only saw the

[0004]
Palace once
when about to leave London
and the Art treasure exhibition when
about to leave Manchester. he
book is all in the printer's hands &
will be published on 10th November .
With many thanks
for your kindness .
I am &c
David Livingstone
