My Dear Waller

I return the photographs & lots of sympathy for your loss.- I told Miss Watson that I would ask you for the photos. of the black people - so they will go only from you
I shall add again
that they are from
H. Waller so keep [0002]

up your heart - only a nice Scotch girl
like her cannot afford to stoop to a man who snores ingloriously while being robbed.
I supposed you were snoring the tune
"man wants but little here below, nor wants that little long." aoor rrrrghroooaooog
Well done my man Why dont you take Jessie Leunox to tak care of you. When [0003]

we were robbed
on Lake Nyasa
We felt awfully foolish - I am rejoicing in the belief that you are feeling
the same - ! Miss

L. is well - and

Take it please at your leisure to mitre court and ask if[^][they] paid it to

George Thornton then tell me in a note with that alone as the subject that's what I get by saving his brothers
