

Letter to [Joseph B. Braithwaite?], 24 February 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

24 (Feby)

1865

My Dear Friend

I thank you very much for your kind note
when you found
that I had called at your chambers
I was going to tell you that my way was smooth

[0002]

towards another
endeavour to
get the slave trade
supplanted by the
free by the (R.G.S.)
offering £500 for
ascertaining the
watershed of that part of the country
about Lake Nyassa
and that though I would not go for it
alone will be in
my way in trying to get an inlet to the interior north of the Portuguese. The

[0003]

Foreign Office give another £500 - and
a friend who does not wish the name
known a thousand
If I only had Robert

(if alive) home to go
with me I should do pretty well. Lord
R. promised another
commission but I think it will have to be mentioned in Parliament & I should be glad if I knew
some one to second
it. That is all I know.

I enclose a letter
from John Moffat

[0004]
which I hope you will have time to read & let me have
it back by the beginning of the month. I
asked D^rTidman
for information
as soon as I came home & he gave me
extracts from his
fathers letters alone
I think I have told John exactly how I feel. I would have written as if I cared nothing but having had letters twice from Kuruman if not three times I think that I ought to have been written to with much esteem I am &c David Livingstone