

Letter to Lovell J. Procter, 27 January 1863

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Elephant Swamp

27 (Jan.y) 1863

My Dear Procter

Johnston brings most distressing of the of our Scudamore feel like Jacob's "What we say or shall we " It is the & yet it is [0002] I say terrible seems as if here are to be tried much as they in the west equal success . May the comfort .

Will you take of a canoe us with 100 panjas of from Vianna of mantiments

[0003]

not beans - which write for. If

S^rTito is at of Shire hear what says about rice I have from him am doubtful Vianna now he deceived once. I advised

Johnstone to go & help you

[0004] he had come far. We have a new bank . We came up to this & have lost couple of days will soon get . We are all thank God Pearce who been long down is recovering

Ever Yours

David Livingstone

[0005]

the Commandante of mouth of the Shire told us that canoe was by him arms ammu-. Wines &c For Marianno going in name the missionaries the Willans! Governor of [0006] Quillimaine & rest of them to be up a tree