My dear D<sup>r</sup> Shaw

I telegraphed

to Arrowsmith

yesterday afternoon

and was truly

thankful to have the map here in time for a meeting

[0002]

of the chamber of commerce this morning at 11 AM.

the Merchants came out strongly about

a steamer for the

Zambesi, and they are to have a deputation on the matter.

I put down

"com. member" on the title page of the book on the strength of a belief that you

[0003]

will make me afterwards!

I shall write to Sir

Roderick, I suppose

via Lady M.

Many thanks for the map. I shall take the liberty of using it for

Scotland. I left the analysis of

Sichuana the language of the

Bechuanas for Norris at Murrays

[0004]

some time ago. Has

he not got it

I should like to know what he thinks of it. Will

you be seeing him

say so & he may

send or call for

it. Agnes is gone to the sea coast with M<sup>rs</sup> L's sister Vavasseur on account of her eyes. With kind regards I am &c
