September 1857

My Dear D^r Shaw

I sent a
note to M^r MacGregor
last night desiring
him to apply to you for the map
as I mean to say a little at Manchester.nd
I hope he may

[0002]

find you still at Dublin. I quite forgot to accept
of the offer you
made & bring it with me. I was a little bewildered
I suppose. If you are still in Dublin
e kind enough
to give it to him
and he will forward

[0003]

it to Manchester whither I am going tomorrow. he children go to Scotland at the same time.

Captain Toynbee
has been looking over my observations
and is much pleased with them . You remember Sir Roderick send

[0004]

that the R.G.S.

would publish them .

Now I wish to put the results i.e. a table of the Latitudes and Longitudes at the end of the book .

Would that interfere

with the publication of them by the society with Captain

Toynbee's remarks?

The Admiral has undertaken to correct

the press - and CapⁿToynbee thinks they may prove useful to travellers. Would you drop a line to say if I may put in the table. Many of them have been already published in your journal .

D Livingstone

Have you heard anything of a steamer for the Zambesi?

I heard a little just before leaving

Dublin on uesday
