My Dear Captain Toynbee

Having been absent at Dublin
attending a meeting of the British Association there, I did not see your notes
yesterday evening, I spoke at a large meeting on Monday evening

[0002]

and your notes &
the observations
having in the mean time gone to Hadley Green I could not attend to your invitation to meet you in London

I hope this may catch you and that you may know that I am truly thankful for all you have done

[0003]

I have just written D^r Shaw telling him that I propose following your plan to give the table of (Lats) & (Long.) at the end of the book and refer to the more full details with your remarks to be published in the

(R. G.) Journal. The
Murray has no

[0004]
objection to print 150 copies to be given to any one who wishes them apart from the book but thinks that 12000 of these would not be valued except by a very few & the expense is very great. The (R. G.)
Journal seems the better vehicle
