

Letter to John Murray III, 28 September 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Bombay 28 Sep^t 1865

My Dear M^rMurray

I beg to trouble with a note for Lady Frere. She me to write Sir Bartle has so very kind in me to stay him and in my as much as in his power I feel very [0002] . I should to give Lady Frere copy of the book.

M^r Maine and I got so well that he me a copy his work - and I do less than him the same of good will - you would add for Rev^d D^r - Malabar-Hill I shall feel obliged.

I am to have eight from an [0003] establish where carpentry

& smith work are taught may help me in navigation if I so far as to need it. some of the battalion - will drilled who have roughed it the Persian Gulph elsewhere - I propose to take buffaloes an experiment the poison of the - They are very [0004] the wild in every save in the shape of horns and amount hair but I have seen horns curved exactly those of the wild one lives among the - If we can a beast of that defies the pest it will be boon. I hope to be in Nov^r I am to two lectures one Poonah & one at Bombay. With love M^{rs} Murray and children & Cooke am &c

David Livingstone