

Letter to William Sunley

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Burnbank Road

Hamilton 2 June

1865

My Dear Sunley

I fear that you
will feel yourself
sadly bored by
letters pouring in on
you from all sides,
I have written you
by way of India - by Sir Thomas Maclear at the Cape & now by D^r Meller who kindly takes charge of this

[0002]

on his way to his con- sulate in Madagascar My object is to ask you to assist me
to get 20 or 25 natives
of Johanna as carriers
on my next trip.
I intended to take
Belooches but (Col.)
Rigby dissuades me
from so doing. I would take Johanna
men entirely and if
you can say trust
to getting them or not
as the case may be
write to me care of
G.M. Stewart Esq

[0003]

at Mess^{rs} Remmington & Co. Bombay.
I have only £500 from Foreign Office - £500

from (Royal Geo. Soc^y) and £1000 from a
private friend. &
am not disposed to be illiberal within
my means. I propose £1 per month for
common men
as it is not skilled labour, and more
such as you would
direct for headmen
and a cook. If you can manage
this for me and

[0004]
let me know that you can before I
leave Bombay I would ask the
man of war that takes me over to come to you. I am
doubtful if I can
bring my steamer
across again. &
will go up Rovuma
in boats. I would need an engagement
for 20 months or
so. Hoping this may find you in good health. I am &c

David Livingstone