My Dear M^r Murray

Your friend
makes a good many corrections which make the matters spoken of
in some cases
much clearer .
I had sent off the proofs of the parts he corrects

[0002]

corrected and now send these to M^r Clowes with a note at the top requesting him
to incorporate the new corrections
with those previously sent. I found it necessary to make considerable additions to the account of Kebrabasa as a
M^r Stewart in "Good words" said that I had not been examined from end to end - and

[0003]

that was done at no little toil and pain. When that part comes back
I have fair sailing
but am a little dazed .

I enclose a letter from M^{rs} L which I enclose
that you may see exactly what she says - 1st & 2nd pages
are what you require to look at chiefly - the Yankees
have married
me in one part

[0004]
at Constantinople .

I am &c
