My Dear Shaw

I return the on the Falls thanks. I had all the ideas from but glad to see again. I was favoured

[0002] an introduction Norris

I was invited by

D<sup>r</sup> Lloyd to Dublin if I go am to with Sir - I think it is doubtful I be in the then

Can you oblige me sending my to

Brand- he will

[0003] it to Miss who is 's cousin

Moffat who made map is the son the M<sup>r</sup> Moffat whose is published yours. He has turn for geography will be much with your of him. sent the map to (the original one) you might

[0004] the aid he had to Hall &

Arrowsmith without being acknowledged will be delighted by mention of . Before this came I knew it had been by Hall & about of Arrowsmith a view to it that of the book

[0005]

Arrowsmith knew it and I have the he has copy of it. He some difficulty occurred with Hall & himself about . I understood the map was be incorporated & acknowledged Moffat s - and the original took it to you

[0006] very next morning its arrival directed. I suppose

Arrowsmith imagines is different what he . Why wont apply to the council a man?

I am ashamed at having written

Denman and telling my change of residence

[0007] ought to have said Arrowsmith a general of all Africa

& a special one the book suppose he intends incorporate in the one shall write S<sup>r</sup> Roderick

[0008]

Believe me Ever &c

D. Livingstone

How should I refer Ad<sup>l</sup> Smith- is his proper & titles- interested himself the watch else?
