

Letter to Horace Waller, 31 October 1864

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org) [0001]

31 Oct^r 1864

My Dear Waller

I return the letter of Lightfoot with thanks. Daoma is done for so near the sea coast. At Kuruman
she might have a
good chance yet.
M^r Moffat tells me
that Sekeletu is dead
and fighting going
on for the regency

and look this way she is engaged to D^r Coates I think for he called her in my presence " Cary"

If you are civil
you may get
the proof sheets
about the
mission to
correct.
[0002]

I am sorry that the
mitre court people
have taken up such a different idea from what I intended to convey - and am
horrified to hear that Davis has so shamefully done for us. I hear
for the first time of the £363. I never got a farthing and until now thought that I had paid all & saved
the mission the entire expense save a little for food. I was told

I think by my wife and [^][he] is of course a Scotchman. Hurrah 3 3 3 3 What do you expect me to give. A pound?

[0003]

that Dawkins had desired Davis to get
provisions for them
and paid for the
same which of course
was quite right. M^s Stewart's passage I
had nothing to do with
but having authorized Sir George Grey
to secure full passage
for the mission
am mortified to hear how it has been done & Dawkins
never said a word
to me about it.
You must set them
right as to my being

Where are the drawings you promised me and about which I wrote - comps to Stewart Ask him to introduce you to Norman Macleod [0004]

in a huff - or you will be impaled on the point of my pen and
Glasgow Edinburgh
& London stinks will be sweet savour to
yours. Thats the rough
side of my tongue.
listen to the smooth
Miss Watson writes Agnes that she is extremely obliged to M^r Waller for the photos. It was so very kind of him to think of her. They will be a precious addition to her album. You are to be thanked which I herein do. You stroke your beard - drink a glass of Stewart's Constantia

Pheasant shooting here tomorrow. I wont try Bishop of Oxford at Nottingham next week I shall go over if he does not come here
David Livingstone