Lady Eastlake

I am both and sorry account of entirely your kind for last

[0002] was employed the greater of last week trying to get from the of London, the beginning this, was spent removing from to Hadley , and the you had obligingly

[0003] within my , of meeting Bishop of and the Editor of the Times, once flitted my mind M^r Murray the reason my absence morning.

If your Ladyships "Well he does

[0004] deserve my , or notice" cannot say a in my . I only my fault any to justify , and though may never me I shall shall never be able to anyone for but myself. I am &c
