

Letter to John Murray III, 17 June [1857]

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Hadley Green

17th June

My Dear M^r Murray

I return the drawings the titles corrected not too late the of the carriers Loanda could improved if put If not the of the woodcut

[0002] the rocks of

Pungo Andongo drag those far a little more line & not the figure for me Andersons with a gun my arm makes me look like a Hottentot he bent the horns

[0003] the ox down & took away gun it would not so like of Anderson am not anxious it however if it will be bother I am

I submit to your other three which are the head dresses

[0004] the Balonda and . they will do for woodcuts in the - I send the by M^r Wilbraham Taylor 1 Robert St.

Adelphi, Strand I shall feel if your calls tomorrow have two pieces

[0005] Manuscript since saw you last but is not quite by my door neighbours will be at

Robert St. on . they more than written by , and are more correct I go over them

[0006] my amanuensis you know

Prof. Andrew 's works? was my professor Glasgow and believe he would a hand when comes to the as he a great friend mine

[0007] am informed D^r Daubeney they propose degree of D.C.L. me at Oxford will look on the page

Yours Ever

David Livingstone

[0008]

the text

In shooting by night are more wounded killed. the flowing stream increases thirst so that they slowly up to in spite of the their feeling "I must drink I die"

Slip 102

[0009]

the emasculation

In shooting by night are more wounded killed: the loss the flowing life increases the so that in they come up to drink spite of the danger appearing as it were, feel that they must , even though were to die for it .102

[0010]

Just glance please at his concentric of a tree are of course from the centre or . He does not know but counts the diameter.

Then a man at forty sees 5 ceremonies
10 would of course make him double 80 & one more or even about 90 man says he would then be 26!!!

[0011]

The Egyptian cast of countenance correct. I was struck the close resemblance the on the mummy cases to Sekeletu's mother!

& others. Adams sends me copies of his letter, they the editor of the Record with the law for what said about it.