

Letter to [Robert Arthington?], 7 April 1865

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Newstead Abbey
7 April 1865
My Dear Sir
On searching
for the address you
requested, I find
that I cannot lay
my hands on it.
A young man in
D^r Hamilton's church
Regent's Square
London told me
about M^r Silva's
proposed visit
& said that on his

[0002]

arrival he would let me know. The young man gave
me his card but
expecting him to communicate I
took no care of it

From your
further explanations
it seems that
you do not so much need the
information
that M^r Silva can give. No obstacle
will be made

[0003]

or put in the way of a settler, but I question whether he could take notes of testa-
ments through the
custom house at
the beginning of his career. When a person is known

to the officers they
are not so illiberal.
Your plan seems
more feasible
now than it did
at first and I trust that the Highest will

[0004]
prosper your work
I should be glad if
at any future time
you will let me
know how you
get on in it. By consulting the Foreign Office list you
might find out
who is the Commissioner or Arbiter on the English side at Soanda & make
enquiries about him
to see if he is likely to be favourable or
otherwise I am &c
David Livingstone