My Dear M^r Murray , I shall feel obliged if you add the titles of Sir Roderick as they appear in his last Presidential address before the R.G.S. & send this dedication to the printer. As he is to be home on onday I would like him to see the proof & he might suggest some alteration. I have not been able to get the preface finished though half done . This "lionizing" is very hard work but I am on my way South & will soon be done with it. I am quite tired out. I am now with your namesake Murray of Lintrose, Cupar Angus but leave today & if my mother is better will go to Kendal, Westmoreland on onday .
