

Letter to Thomas S. Livingstone, 28 February 1860

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Kongone Harbour

28 February

1860.

My Dear Tom answer to a from Robert I have some small specimens natural history some of are for you, and as manifesting the and power of you will do well to . They go home by Mr_ Rae who will tell [0002] all he can about us - you may ask him question you please. enclose the horns of an oryx shot by D^r Kirk some other things to that you are not .

We are going up to the Makololo country soon and having been delayed long in the lower part the river. but the delay led to our discovering

[0003] magnificent country by up the Shire until we the Lake from it flows. We think our Heavenly Father work for us there in the trade in . We were much decieved our ship by a person making great pretensions piety tried to turn the Expedition to his wordly advantage you do in life be [0004] and sincere in serving God & man. The untruths man had to tell to cover deceit & selfishness were fright-. The Lord bless & keep from all evil and grant no sin may have over you.

A mail bag which was lost by the boat being capsized found and carried to Kilimane thence to Tette. Hope a letter you is in it but ten to one it is readable now after being Jonah in the sea but not in the 's belly

[...] [David Livingstone]