

Letter to Lady Belhaven

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Burbank,

24th (Feby) 1858

Dear Lady Belhaven

I am sorry that it has been quite out of my power to call and thank you
and Lady Emma
Campbell for so

[0002]

kindly remembering
my African friends
I shall take the rugs to Sekeletu
and tell him
that they are presented by two female chieftains
of my country as an acknowledgement
for the kindness

[0003]

he shewed to me
when a solitary
stranger in a strange land. I had hoped to have spent a few days here
but I came from London yesterday
and go down to Glasgow tonight -
speak to the college students

[0004]

tomorrow at 3. then

come here on friday afternoon to say good bye to my mother. I beg leave to say Farewell to you on paper. and wish you and
Lord Belhaven
every blessing

David Livingstone