30th May
Hadley Green
Barnet
My Dear M<sup>r</sup> Murray I return the drawings with remarks. I entirely forgot all about
Lady EastLake's
invitation. the
flitting must have driven it out of
my head for untill

[0002]

your note came this morning I never dreamed about it
I shall write and apologize. I shall let the printer have three pieces on Monday if he sends to M<sup>r</sup> Wilbraham Taylor 1 Robert St.
Adelphi Strand
for it between 11 & 12 o clock. He is a neighbour &
will bring any little thing

[0003]

Please send the following corrections
to be incorporated
with the others
P. 108 line 9 from
the bottom after
was seen, add, But it may be a sort of Ant-Lion (Myrmuoléo)

as they often walk
backwards.

P. 113 Second line
from bottom

[0004]

retain the words
splash, guggle
jupp, as Prof.
Owen thinks them
very expressive
of the thing intended

P. 111 Retain what follows 10th line
from top as corrected in the slips sent.

117 21st line from top after "disaffection" put and successful rebellion Dele success

[0005]

down for us.
The books will
I suppose come safe. I think I can promise
you three or four pieces of
new matter weekly
we are quite quiet here. Would you send M<sup>r</sup> Gabriel's letters
as I am now in

[0006]

Angola. they may be suggestive
I shall come up on Thursday next
to fulfill an engagement with
Baptist Noel
& that is the last.
The Manchester
friends tell me
of £500 without a whit of that bother which Alderman Wire coined for me in London. It is there

[0007]

Could you lend me Maunder's
treasury of Natural History. I have it in Africa and
dont wish to buy
another

With kind regards to M<sup>rs</sup>Murray & hoping she will say a word in
excuse for me
the first time
thereby doubly valuable

[0008]

She meets Lady
Eastlake

I am &c
