

Letter to Unknown

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

57 Sloane St.

London 27 ( Jan<sup>y</sup>).

Private

Sir

I have been requested by Mr Prout
to reply to a note you sent to him respecting my acceptance of the Freedom of the City of Edinburgh.

If I consult my own inclinations

[0002]

I have not the the smallest desire to any civic honours. I wish to finish my present work with all expedition and
hasten back to my men who now
await the fullfillment
of my promise at Tete. The writing of my work will occupy me fully to the end of April. I shall then ( D. V.)

[0003]

pay my last visit to my good mother in Hamilton. If that time would be suitable and you see that the gentlemen still feel inclined to confer the honour I shall come

but hope no public
demonstration will be made. Those public meetings in London
have all been against my judgement for
I cannot help fearing

[0004]
if we protestants make too much fuss opponents who are now still may be excited to spring up against us. You know the Portugese
are all Roman Catholics If the gentlemen wish to honour the cause in which I am engaged I must accede to the honour and will try to do it thankfully

Believe me Dear Sir

&c

David Livingstone