

Letter to John Murray III, 30 May 1857

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Sat Evening

30th May

1857

My Dear M^r Murray

I am sorry to that you have led to suppose the reviser employed in any way for the . I give you few specimens his erudition taken random

[0002] 98 line 22 from "pestered" is the beseiged is not 26th~~spinal is not true it was uterine but~~

S 95 Hooping cough into Whooping What is that?

96 to his affrighted corrected to the great of their astonished !

No inspection of the [0003] being ever allowed thus, by these - ! Then third from top a left out which quite necessary complete the .

Please look at 111 and say what is out is not positive of man being wanting [0004] sympathy with author of a book this kind. Prof. puts stet it.

S.210 bottom of page not know of "parts!"

(vide Johnson or

Webster)

213 Makes nonsense a plain statement middle of page ° D° 214

[0005] see I have avoided expressly that is cut off it might be from using proper term for operation. And man who puts his to revise a on South Africa to have known universal practice the real cutting off see 218 - incision again 226

[0006]

"the phrase being identical "abiit ad plures"" struck out, by gentleman - ab disce omnes I fear

Now my good I cannot you have the process emasculation which I fear have been . the liberties

[0007] has taken are unwarrantable I cannot really to father . I am willing submit my uncouth though be to M^r Elwin any friend you and if it is clearer more and popular than this man

[0008] give I shall confess I am . My letters to the Geog & Missionary are popular must you for diluting I say with pambyism me, but must give this leave to quit really cannot afford appear as he would me D. Livingstone