11th Mamohela = rest half a day - ill still but we cannot delay - I do very devoutly thank the Lord for sparing my my life three times in 24 hours - No Lort[d] is good a stronghold in the day of trouble and he knows them that trust in him - 12 Remain at Mamohelavil - the camp is all burned off - First rain fell in evening of the 11th Thunder - Laid dust - 13th on to Lolindi suffering much - a man brought a Kite nearly full fledged out of its nest on a tree - This is the first breeding case I am sure off -

14th over many brisk burns to vil on side of mountain range = a little rain fell after dark - near Luamo it ran in paths & some burns and caused dew -

15th to Muanambongo's - Golungo bush buck with stripes across body & spots along all the side in a [^][two] row[s]

16th To Luamo very ill with bowels -

17th cross it and send a message to Katomba at Moenengoi's = sent present of food back [Livingstone records a series of calculations on this page. A note at the top of the page states that these calculations were made at in the "camp at 4° 10' Lat Lualaba called Nyangwe."]
