1864

My Dear D<sup>r</sup> Hooker

I took the liberty of addressing a box to your care
for our friend
M<sup>r</sup> Young of Limefield - West -
Calder Mid Lothian.
It contains the
crania of two Hippopotami

[0002]

some bulbs and
two small tusks -
the bulbs especially
one small species
might be interesting to you and I shall [feel] obliged if you send the box with the other things to M<sup>r</sup> Young's address at your convenience.

The box came

[0003]

by the H. M. S. Narcissus and when I heard of it a few days ago was in the Custom House at Portsmouth.

I hope that your family and

your Father are well & beg to be kindly remembered
to them until I can go out & pay my respects in person .
I shall do so though

[0004]
I suppose you are more frequently
bored by vagrants
than you relish .

I am &c

David Livingstone
