

Letter to Lovell J. Procter, 27 January 1863

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Elephant Swamp

27 (Jan.y) 1863

My Dear Procter

Johnston brings
the most distressing
intelligence of the death of our beloved Scudamore
I feel like Jacob's bretheren "What shall we say or
what shall we speak" It is the Lord & yet it is

[0002]

shall I say terrible
It seems as if here
we are to be tried
as much as they were in the west
may equal success
follow. May the Almighty comfort
you.

Will you take charge of a canoe
for us with 100 panjas of
rice from Vianna
or of mantiments

[0003]

not beans - which I write for. If S^rTito is at mouth of Shire
and hear what

he says about
some rice I have asked from him
I am doubtful
of Vianna now
since he deceived
us once. I advised Johnstone to go
on & help you

[0004]
as he had come
so far. We have met a new bank
here. We came up quickly to this &
now have lost
a couple of days
but will soon get
on. We are all well thank God
except Pearce who has been long down
but is recovering

Ever Yours

David Livingstone

[0005]

the Commandante of
the mouth of the Shire told us that a canoe was
seized by him
with arms ammunition. Wines spirits &c For Marianno going
up in name
of the missionaries
Oh the Willans!
the Governor of

[0006]
of Quillimaine &
the rest of them
ought to be up a tree