

Letter to Arthur Tidman, 2 March 1856

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

Same as printed version L.M.S. publication (copy./

Tette or Nyungwé,
on the River Zambesi,
Africa, 2nd March 1856.

Rev^d D^r Tidman,
My dear Sir,
Having by the mercy of God reached the farthest inland station of the Portuguese this morning, I gladly avail myself of an opportunity to Quillimane to advise you (and M^{rs} L. by the enclosed note) that I am thus far on my way down the river.
It will be gratifying for you to hear that I have been able to follow up, without swerving, my original plan of opening a way to the sea on either the East or West Coast, from a healthy locality in the interior of the Continent.
Not until two months ago was I aware of the existence of any salubrious point though I now recollect a reference made thereto by Sebituane. x x x And now I can announce not only a shorter path for our use, but, if not egregiously mistaken, a decidedly healthy locality. By this fine river flowing through a fine fertile Country we have water Conveyance to within

[0002]

1° or 2° of the Makololo. The only impediments I know of being one or two rapids, and the people in some parts being robbers. I have come thus far with but little loss. x x x

The Portuguese have been amazingly kind. Here they are no less so than in Angola, and much of it is owing I believe to my public spirited friend

M^r Duprat, and to the Bishop of Angola.

The kind interest which many of my Countrymen have shewn in my work makes me feel deeply grateful, and somewhat ashamed withal at having done so little to deserve it. x x x I am not so elated in having performed what has not to my knowledge been done before in traversing the Continent, because the end of the geographical feat is but the beginning of the Missionary Enterprise.
May God grant me life to do some more good to this poor Africa.

I have a report written for you, but it requires copying. I rest a few days here because I have been on foot through a very rough, stony Country:- oxen all dead by [0003]

tsetse, and too poor to buy a canoe; with one I could have been here a month ago. In excellent health, - no fever all the way from Linyanti.

Affectionately your's,
(s^d) David Livingston