My Dear Waller

I am sorry that I can only give you a line
for the men are waiting and I wish to tell you more
according to your wish. I shall take an early opportunity of writing you

I cannot but
say that Morambala [0002]
seems as healthy
looking as up here
on the hills but I dont know. I thought the bishop
whom we liked
very well indeed
ought to visit both Ukames & Morambala
before deciding.

Clementino will be glad of bills on Bombay for his money from Thorton, but [0003]
I shall revert to the subject. We go up to the North of the Lake if we can. My kind salutations
to Procter & Rowley
I would have written Procter had

it been possible
but I hope he will take my kind
good bye through you & that - the Highest may be his shield and comforter
[0004]

I am ever yours.

David Livingstone
