My Dear D<sup>r</sup> Shaw

On recollecting your kind notice that I might draw some money
from the testimonial
fund through you
and having nothing
else at present in
my power unless
I should begin to draw afresh from
the L. Mission Society

[0002]

or from M<sup>r</sup> Murray the publisher, I shall feel much obliged
if you can let me
have £50 of the money
in your hands without making it much known. If it should be necessary to discuss the thing before
committees you
need not take the trouble, but return
the receipt by M<sup>rs</sup> L.

[0003]

I might apply to the London Missionary
society but it would be beginning the £100 for 1857 which I have no intention of doing. I have nothing now there

as they gave part of my salary to M<sup>rs</sup> L.
when I was absent
and the sum (£100)
I had over of my
four years trip is
now among the things that were

[0004]
this £50 if it can be got without trouble
and talk, will enable us to go on till we get more into our hands either from the book or testimonial .

I am busy at work
never out scarcely,
am going to the Arch bishop 's tonight and as I am not sure about the
"stone" & "ston" I imitate him & sign myself
