My Dear Sir return my very thanks for your invitation to join "Gaiter Club." but had engaged to go to the of the British at Bath, [also] arranged to leave for the south monday where I be for two or months. I fear am thus precluded the pleasure of [0002] a meeting the members.

The object of the club not appear very on the face the constitution con-in the pamphlet which I have to you - unless amo silvasque rollicking woods & to which I had a strong ever I first opened eyes

[0003]

Although I am prevented waiting upon I very highly the feeling with you remembered name and am very cordially
