My Dear M^r Murray

It will be better for M^r Clowes to send the sheets first
to me as I find
that M^r Binney
is often puzzled
much by what

[0002]

my correction makes quite clear. It will save him much trouble. He wont
believe that this type is not to
be used the expense
will be so great. He likes
the type much
Is it really to be recom
posed again?

[0003]

M^r B is very well pleased to assist
me in any way.
I have now sent over to him two
corrected pieces
Tell M^r Clowes
that every where Bakwains is
to be spelled thus Bakwains

Bamangwato
Bangwaketze

[0004]

Caffres. I have changed my mind
on the words &
now make them
uniform. Send for n° IX when you need it. And let me have some of the red ink man's work that I may correct in manuscript. I have others for
him.

[0005]

I want a small Portuguese and English dictionary
there is one pocket
one with clear
type which is very good. I have
forgot the name
but it is less
in size than this
note paper considerably
and thick

[0006]

I have curtailed
the Caffre war
subject and
sweetened it
Have you a business correspond ent in Boston
I want to send
a little money
there by & bye
you have I suppose
closed with the

A good likeness
of a bushwoman
with a bundle
of ostrich egg
shells exists in a collection at the Duchess of Sutherland's and

[0008]
may have it
if you should like it. Of course
you would require to go with me and see it
first
