My Dear Nannie

I send this home M^r Rae our Engineer whom you may see. I send the same time a box with few objects of natural history Robert and Thomas a few rings for you is a lip ring and if like to wear it as women up the Shire M^r Rae will shew you . I bought it and the took it out of a in her lip & gave it [0002] sorry I thought to part with thing that made her so "brave." Dear me, our Nannie will be so tall she wont know her toes are cold. I hear from Mamma but soon to find letters in a bag which was lost in sea and found. Uncle is here and well. If fond music you might learn on instrument M^r Rae will home. The Lord bless keep you from all .
