Letter to John Murray III, 24 August 1857

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

 $[0001] \\ \text{Hadley Green} \\ 24^{\underline{\text{th}}} \text{ Aug}^{\text{st}} \\ 1857 \\ \text{My Dear M}^{\underline{\text{r}}} \text{ Murray } \\ \text{When you} \\ \text{asked about} \\ \text{appendices I} \\ \text{forgot my ob} \\ \underline{\text{ns}} \\ \text{calculated by} \\ \text{Maclear. Admiral} \\ \text{Smythe's son in law}$

[0002]

has very promptly undertaken the editorship and as he has found out a new way of correcting Lunars and says Maclears work is admirable I think it will lend interest to the book among the scientific. Printed in small type I suppose it will not occupy much space Captain Toynbee will perhaps need a few Nautical Almanacs from you. I am at Tete in correction [of slips] will finish all except the set up sheets [0004] on Wednesday. I go to Dublin on Thursday Did you ever get an opinion on the grammar perhaps the observations will be a better appendix than it Mr Rae, Common wealth newspaper wants an early copy for friendly review. I said

[0003]

I would send the order

[0005]
to you He is 37
Jamaica St. Glasgow
If you send a copy to the Editor of the Edinburgh
pray let it be one in which an error in page 96 is corrected. He has printed some

[0006] sheets correctly. I would like to give Captain Need & D^r Smith a copy each for their kindness in giving the drawings - I sent off this morning page 544 Press

[0007]
and the last bundle
of slips but two
If you ever
were afraid
of my not giving you
bulk you are not so now for I have an index I am &c D. Livingstone