Letter to John Murray III, 5 March [1857]

Livingstone, David, 1813-1873

Published by Livingstone Online (livingstoneonline.org)

[0001]

 $\begin{array}{c} 57 \; \mathrm{Sloane} \; \mathrm{St} \\ 5^{\underline{\mathrm{th}}} \; \mathrm{March} \end{array}$

My Dear Sir

I got a present of a copy of D<sup>r</sup> Smith's work from himself last night. It only wants binding. What a pity we did not know sooner. It will perhaps be impossible to countermand the one ordered already [0002]I have thought an antelope named Aakon should be introduced into one of Wolf's pictures Anderson never saw it and I did. the horns & foot he got his picture from were brought by MrOswel & myself, the skin was sent by me to Colonel Steele. It lies or rather hides itself in the water with the horns put [0003]back horizontally with the back and only the tip of the nose above water It is more paunchy than in Anderson's picture there is room for it in the picture with the other new antelope

I should like too another pretty little antelope we have which is figured in Angus' book.

the only thing M<sup>rs</sup> L. did at Lake Ngami [0004] was to make a cup of tea for me - didn't turn up the whites of her eyes or do the sentimental at all so you must not make her holding up her little finger even You might oblige me by sending for "Harris & Smith tomorrow

I am &c.

David Livingstone

The large frog in Smith is not the eatable fellow