My Dear Sir

I beg leave to tender you my [hearty] thanks for your kindness in sending me a copy of your handsome work.

I was not aware untill I read your note that any questions had been raised such as those to which you refer and feel no eertain[sort of] interest in their solution. And as for the difficulties they seem to have been some what different in their nature. I judge this from a glance at part of your preface. But we have overcome them and nothing more need be said about them.

I anticipate much pleasure in reading your volumes and thank you sincerely for tehm and the sentences of approbation with which you kindly accompanied the gift.

I am Sir
your much obeyed St.
David Livingston
Dr Barth
