My Dear M<sup>r</sup> Murray

I have lighted on the analysis at last and if you could get a clever fellow to see that no typographical errors were [0002]committed in the English I might before we sail have time to do the native words A few copies are all I want By attending to to this you will much the observation book has not turned up and may possibly be still in some nook and if so you will be kind enough to forward it to Thomas Maclear [0004]

oblige Yours Ever

David Livingstone
